CLIMATE CAFÉ

*WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME
SOMEONE ASKED HOW YOU FEEL ABOUT CLIMATE CHANGE?*

CCAT is relaunching our Climate Café workshop series for 2024 on March 7th.

You may have many emotions and thoughts when you think about our changing climate; knowing our future generations face an uncertain future. We increasingly need to talk about what our changing world means for us in terms of impacts at a personal, family, and societal level.

There are no guest speakers, no lectures, no advice, and no commitment; it is an action-free space.

The Collingwood Climate Action Team runs Climate Cafés for our community free of charge. We have partnered with Summit Social House to bring you this event. Our next cafe is Thursday March 7th at 7:00 pm.

They will run every second Thursday of the month.

A Response From Mayor Hamlin

We are thrilled to announce that we have received a response from the mayor regarding our joint letter advocating for Green Development Standards. After months of collaborative effort and dedication, our voices have been heard. The mayor's acknowledgment signifies a significant step forward in our community's commitment to sustainable development. We eagerly anticipate further discussions and actions to implement these standards, ensuring a greener, more sustainable future for all.
